Program Overview

The Department trains ICT professionals who have both technical skills in the field of ICT and pedagogical skills in the field of education to be teachers of ICT and electronic content developers for educational applications.

Specifically, the department is establsished:

- To train competent ICT teachers for Technical and Vocational Training College (TVTC) and high schools
- To produce competent IT trainer and administrator of ICT resource centers in Technical and Vocational Training College (TVTC) and high schools
- To produce qualified professionals in ICT that manage and implement the SchoolNet program
- To conduct research in the application of ICT in education and training

- To develop different e-learning contents and support other departments in the development of e-learning contents
- To produce skilled manpower that could generate and innovate ideas for using ICT to solve socio-economic problems in collaboration with other professionals
- To organize and conduct short- term training for continuous professional development for higher institutions, TVTC and high school teachers

  - To provide advisory and consultancy service for government and nongovernmental institutions
  - To provide short term training in ICT for school teachers as well as other professionals
  - To support other programs of the College in professional career development and other ICT related activities

Contact Address:

P.O.Box: 11 77

Telephone: 0111 24 97 71